

Ladies Bunco Night Benefits Susan G. Komen Foundation

Fun event helps fight breast cancer.

Palatine, IL, April 30, 2009

Thirty-six ladies gathered at Golf Nation to compete in spirited games of Bunco while at the same time supporting Susan G. Komen for the Cure. More than $1,000 was netted for the Komen organization, which has raised over $1 billion for research, education and health services. It is the largest breast cancer charity in the world and recognized as the leading catalyst in the fight against breast cancer, with more than 100,000 volunteers working in a network of 125 U.S. and international affiliates.

Golf Nation frequently hosts parties, corporate outings and charity events. "It's just a fun and unique place to gather and people are always blown away the first time they visit Golf Nation," says Marketing Director Adriane DiMeo who coordinated the event.

Golf Nation routinely hosts a variety of group events including many fundraisers. For more information contact Tim Wuhrman at 847-202-GOLF or visit on line at www.golfnation.us
