Golf Nation Set to Open in Palatine

Year Round Golf & Fitness Club keeps golfers happy all year long.

Palatine, IL, December 6, 2007: With harsh weather upon Chicagoland, golfers can get excited that a multi-million dollar, 25,000 sq. ft. Club is about to open in Palatine.

The first of its kind and located on three spacious acres adjacent to Palatine's very own Nature Preserve, Golf Nation is an upscale Club that offers something for everyone including avid golfers, beginners and fitness buffs. "This concept is long overdue" says Tim Wuhrman, Golf Nation's General Manager. "So many of us want to play and practice year round and all of us need to stay fit. We've combined the best elements of golf and fitness into one great Club."

"We're creating a special experience at Golf Nation" adds Adriane DiMeo, Director Programming. "Beyond using state-of-the-art golf and fitness equipment, Members and guests can enjoy social events like Nine & Wines, guest lectures and special events."

Golf Nation's amazing facility includes:

- ◇ Incredible indoor practice facilities- massive chipping and pitching greens, sand traps, true-roll putting green and a Skills & Drills area. Outdoors consist of a driving range complete with heated bays and next spring a par-three will be added with multiple tee locations.
- ◇ Virtual golf simulators with more than 50 Championship courses
- ◇ State-of-the-art Fitness Center including equipment and classes
- ◇ Lessons & Schools featuring Todd Sones, a Golf Digest Top 50 Instructor
- ◇ Café and Member Lounge
- ◇ Pro Shop with game improvement equipment and stylish attire.
